

Willamette Valley Quilt Festival Rules

General Rules and Information

1. The WVQF dates are February 2-3, 2018. The hours are 10 AM – 5 PM both days.
2. To register your quilt for the WVQF you must print an entry form from the show website www.willamettevalleyquiltfestival.com and bring it, filled out, to an authorized drop off location on a specified drop off date. No quilts will be accepted other than at authorized drop off locations and only on authorized drop off dates.
3. Each quilt that you wish to enter into the WVQF must have its own registration form.
4. Please be advised that WVQF, its staff and judges have the right to refuse for any reason. Contestant or potential contestant acknowledges that the decision(s) of WVQF staff are final in this matter and all others relating to the WVQF.
5. No quilt may be entered into the WVQF without both a signed Quilt Entry Form and a signed Willamette Valley Quilt Show Rules form.

Definition of a Quilt and Quilt Requirements

1. A quilt is two layers of fabric with a filling, stitched together with lines or a pattern.
2. Quilts made from predominately printed panels and those that do not have extensive use of piecing, applique or embroidery, do not qualify for entry unless they have been machine or hand quilted.
3. Tied quilts do not qualify for entry. Exception: Those made by a person, twelve years of age or younger, and entered into the Junior category, may be tied and still qualify for entry.
4. Quilts may not exceed 104” in size when measured in any direction.
5. Quilts other than square or rectangular must be approved by WVQF, due to difficulty of hanging.
6. A fabric label must be sewn to the back of each quilt entered. The label should include the quilt name and the exhibitor’s name. The label must match the information included on your registration form.
